

Reading Websites to Support Reading

- ◆ <http://www.starfall.com/>

This is a great site for learning to read. If you go to the I'm Reading link you will find great stories for your child.

- ◆ <http://www.sadlier-oxford.com/phonics/student.cfm?mode=circus>

Great phonics activities for sounds, and word building.

- ◆ <http://jc-schools.net/tutorials/tools/reading.html>

This is an interesting site with many different activities.

- ◆ www.readtheory.org

Registration is free and provides students with reading content that is tailored to their individual ability level.

- ◆ <http://www.ed.gov/pubs/CompactforReading/table3.html>

This is a third grade site for language activities.

- ◆ www.sheppardsoftware.com

Language arts games for nouns, verbs, capitalization, adjectives and commas.

- ◆ www.knowledgeadventure.com

Choose from several subject areas at different grade levels.

- ◆ www.gamequarium.com

A variety of English language arts games that focus on reading fluency, comprehension, phonics, vocabulary, writing and more.

- ◆ www.englishmaven.org

Many different activities that focus on reading and writing skills.

Reading Websites to Support Reading
